Individuals selected for fellowships conduct independent research in ETS’s offices in Princeton, N.J. A wide-variety of research is acceptable including: measurement theory, validity, natural language processing and computational linguistics, cognitive psychology, learning theory, linguistics, speech recognition and processing, teaching and classroom research, and statistics. The goals of the program are to: (a) provide research opportunities to individuals who hold a doctorate in the fields indicated above; and (b) increase the number of professionals from diverse backgrounds - especially traditionally underrepresented groups such as African Americans, Hispanic/Latino Americans, and American Indians – conducting research in educational measurement and related fields.
Applicants must hold a doctorate in the fields indicated above. Applicants must provide evidence of prior research.
FUNDING: $55,000 stipend plus limited relocation reimbursement expenses.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS
UNIVERSAL DESIGN
LEADERSHIP PROJECT

E-MAIL: levyk@arts.gov
PHONE: 202 682-5733

FAX: 202 682-5715

The Arts Endowment seeks to enter into a Cooperative Agreement with an organization that will carry out a project to increase understanding, acceptance, and practice of universal design within the design profession, by design educators, and by the American public. Proposed projects should focus on extending the appeal of universal design from the disability community into the mainstream of American design and American society. The project should educate designers and others including developers, city planners, and consumers on this important issue.
The Arts Endowment expects to award one Cooperative Agreement of up to $65,000. The Cooperator must provide nonfederal matching funds of at least $65,000. Matching funds in excess of this minimum are couraged.

DIGITAL HUMANITIES START-UP
GRANTS

DUE: March 23
WEB: http://www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/digitalhumanitiesstartup.html

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) invites applications to the Digital Humanities Start-Up Grants program. This program is designed to courage innovations in the digital humanities. By awarding relatively small grants to support the planning stages, NEH aims to encourage the development of innovative projects that promise to benefit the humanities. Digital Humanities Start-Up Grants should result in plans, prototypes, or proofs of concept for long-term digital humanities projects prior to implementation. Two levels of awards will be made in this program. Level I awards are small grants designed to fund brainstorming sessions, workshops, early alpha-level prototypes, and initial planning. Level II awards are larger grants that can be used for more fully-formed projects that are ready to begin implementation or the creation of working prototypes. Applicants must state in their narrative which funding level they seek.
Applicants should carefully choose the funding level appropriate to the needs of the proposed project. Digital Humanities Start-Up Grants support full-time or part-time activities for periods up to eighteen months. Support is available for various combinations of scholars, consultants, and research assistants; project-related travel; and technical support and services. Up to 20 percent of the total grant may be used for the acquisition of computing hardware and software. All grantees are expected to communicate the results of their work to appropriate scholarly and public audiences. In order to facilitate dissemination and increase the impact of the projects that are ultimately developed through Digital Humanities Start-Up Grants, applicants are strongly encouraged to employ open-source and fully accessible software.
Awards are for up to eighteen months.
Digital Humanities Start-Up Grants have two levels of funding: Level I Grants range from $5,000 to $25,000 in outright funding; Level II Grants range from $25,001 to $50,000 in outright funding.

INSTITUTES FOR ADVANCED TOPICS IN THE DIGITAL HUMANITIES

DUE: February 17
WEB: http://www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/IATDH.html

These NEH grants support national or regional (multistate) training programs for scholars and advanced graduate students to broaden and extend their knowledge of digital humanities. Through these programs, NEH seeks to increase the number of humanities scholars using digital technology in their research and to broadly disseminate knowledge about advanced technology tools and methodologies relevant to the humanities. The projects may be a single opportunity or offered multiple times to different audiences. Institutes may be as short as a few days and held at multiple locations or as long as six weeks at a single site. The duration of a program should allow for full and thorough address of the topic. Awards normally range from one to three years and from $50,000 to a maximum of $250,000.
Successful applicants will be awarded a grant in outright funds, federal matching funds, or a combination of the two, depending on the applicant's preference and the availability of NEH funds.
